

what magic are you made of?

Draw threads of light coming from the earrings and write down what kind of magic each thread is made of. The magic you offer is unique and special. Are you made of love, courage, humor, kindness? Share your magic with others after!

